

Damn You, Autocorrect

by Griff Sanford

(Capo 5)

Chorus

Am            G            F            E
Damn you, damn you, autocorrect
         Am            G            F            E
You took what I texted and now it's wrecked
Am            G            F            E
Damn you, damn you, autocorrect
F            G            Am
I know that I didn't say "duck."

Verse 1

         Am                    Em            Am
You change what I say on the daily
         Am            G                    C
My parents were shocked when I said
         C            G            Am
I was taking my genital classes
         Am            Em            Am
What I wrote was general ed

You edit my texts and I'm never sure
How you'll misrepresent me today
I check and recheck and then I hit send
But you still always find a way

Verse 2

My pastor and I are not speaking
Because of an edit you made
I meant to say soups, you changed it to souls
Now he thinks my soul has strayed

My brother is really offended
I said Marlee Matlin was dead
She's Deaf and I know it, but he got upset
And this is all on your head

Verse 3

Texting's becoming a problem
'Cause you keep on changing my terms
Not the terms I agreed to - the ones that I type
And then sending them off while I squirm

I need you to lay off the spellcheck
And the autocomplete on my phone
Just let me write what I meant to say
And leave me the hell alone

CHORUS X2

I know that I didn't say duck
Because nobody ever says duck!
