

Desert of the Damned

by Griff Sanford

(Capo 3)

V1

Am
I walk across the sandy roads
G
Beneath a starry sky
F E E7
A desert breeze behind me here and gone
Am
I'm stumbling and I'm sand blind
G
The days have worn me through
F G Am
I'm dreaming of a bed to slumber on

V2

Shining in the distance
I see a quiet light
I see a door awaits me near a stone
I stumble through its gateway
I'm stunned by what I find
It's empty, yet I am not alone

CHORUS

F G Am
Welcome to the place where you will never die
F G E E7
Welcome to the place you'll always be
F G Am
Welcome to the place that's waited all your life
F G Am
Welcome, we will never set you free

V3

Laden down with jewels
Sparkling with gems
They drift out of the walls and draw me near Calling me by names I had
When I was just a boy
They pull me through the doors and see my fear

V4

Ceilings full of mirrors
Rooms so full of knives
Everyone in fairy-deckled chains
All of them are smiling
The smiles are full of lies
I cannot find a way back to the plains

BRIDGE

F G Am
You will never leave again
F G Am
Once here, you always will remain
F G Am
You will never leave again
F E E7
Not even if you're slain

V5

I run through every corridor
All the doors stand wide
Staring into rooms I cannot see
Visions chase me everywhere
I cannot close my eyes
I do not know what will become of me

They ply me with their spirits
They serve me with a meal
Still I stand here wondering where I am
When I beg, they tell me
I'll never leave again
In walking through the door, I joined the damned

CHORUS

OUTTRO

F G Am
You will never leave again
You will never leave again
You will never leave again
F G Am
We will never set you free
