

Half-Price Chocolate Day Eve – Music and Lyrics by Griff Sanford

(Capo 2)

Verse 1

          G                          D
It's the fourteenth day of the second month
      C                          D
A day that so many dread
          G                          D
When partners must be romantic
      C                          D
And single folks stay in bed
      C                          D
But many people miss the point
          G      D      Em
Of this yearly day of love
      Am                      G
It's not today but tomorrow
          C                          D
We've all been dreaming of

Chorus

      G                          D
Come, everybody, line up at the doors!
      C                      Am          D
Tomorrow's the day when we all mob the stores!
          G                          D
The day that everyone's waiting for -
      C                      D          G
It's Half-Price Chocolate Day Eve!

Verse 2

Tomorrow we'll buy all the chocolate
They couldn't sell today
And better yet, it's all half-off!
Because they need to make way
For chocolate Easter bunnies
And yummy jelly beans
Tomorrow is the best of days!
Who cares what today means?

Chorus

Verse 3

We've been waiting for this day forever
(Well, at least all year)
For all that half-priced chocolate
That normally comes so dear
Does anything taste better
Than on Half-Price Chocolate Day?
Waiting for it is worth it -
There is no better way!

Chorus

Outtro

It's Half-Price Chocolate Day Eve! (Sing it with me!)
It's Half-Price Chocolate Day Eve!
