

Vonnegut
by Griff Sanford
Dedicated to Blind Lemming Chiffon

(Capo 2-3)

V1

C
There's a quiet man who's waiting
Am
His nose deep in a book
F
You walk up and say hello
He rewards you with a look
F
"You want to know my story?
C Am
"Have a seat, it won't take long.
F
"Here's what my life taught me.
G
"It can help you move along."

Chorus

C
He said: You've got to be kind, babies
Am
You've got to be kind
Em Am
Whatever else the world demands from you
F
In the stress and the mess
Am
In the joy and the sorrow
G
There's just one rule that I know to be true
F G Am
God damn it, you've got to be kind
F G Am
You've got to be kind
F G Am
You've got to be kind
F G C
Damn it, you've got to be kind

V2

He said: There's love enough for everyone
If people will just look.
Find it in each other,
In a song, or in a book.
Love is where you find it —
All you have to do is see.
Find it here and find it there;
Find love in you and me.

Chorus

Bridge

Em Am
Be careful who you pretend to be
G C
'Cause that's how we become what we become
Em Am
Look around and see what you can see
F G
Live your life, don't let it make you numb

V3

He said: Enjoy the little things in life —
They'll be bigger things one day
Create some art and grow your soul
Then let it slip away
Love whoever is here to be loved
No matter what else you might do
That's the reason why we're living
To be loved and love others too

Chorus
