

Queen of the Horn
by Griff Sanford
Dedicated to Cozy Joe Petty

(Capo 2)

Verse 1

C Em
Queen of Narnia in the Golden Age
Am G
Dark of hair, fair of face
F Am
She of the Horn of the legends,
G
Disappeared without a trace
C Em
One morning on hunt with her siblings three
Am G
Her brothers the Kings by her side
F Am
Her sister, Queen Lucy, before her
G
Chasing a stag white of hide

CHORUS

Em Am
Susan the patient, Susan the kind,
Em Am
Susan the sought-after queen
F Am
Princes and kings wanted her for their bride,
G
But none of them were seen
Em Am
Susan the gentle, Susan the calm,
Em Am
Queen of the Horn for us all
F C G
She never faltered, so why did she fall?

Verse 2

Always cautious, watchful and wise
She guided the kingdom with grace
Keeping her counsel sequestered,
Behind her quiet face

Head of the Castle of Cair Paravel,
A warrior of arrow and bow
Who could believe she would ever depart?
How could anyone know?

CHORUS

BRIDGE

Am E
Though she came back to Narnia a second time,
Am E
Aslan could not let her stay
F C
Why, then, should anyone wonder
E
Why she drew herself away?
Am E
Embracing the world she had come from
Am E
She was still a Queen in her heart
F Am
Seeking the path of the righteous
G
Held apart

Verse 3

She worked for the righteous, she worked for the just
Laboring for the Light
Drawing on all of the knowledge
She learned in her endless fight
To preserve both her kingdoms, the old and the new
With her gracious, tenacious will
And though she may never reach Narnia again,
We know her power still

CHORUS 2

(Same until last lines)

She never faltered, and she did not fall.
C
She did not fall.
