Keep your spirits up, my friends
Be the bold and true

And we will fight anew

We march again to stand our ground
And we will do our part
We have a thing they do not have
We are the fierce of heart

Bridge 2

Although it may seem helpless
Be merry, friends, be brave
We'll live to fight another day
For the future we will save

We will take the coming year
Hold the line, never falter
Never fear
