

Chosen One
by Griff Sanford

Capo 2, 4/4, moderate strum

A G A G

V1

A G
Born on Tatooine, out on the Outer Rim
A G
He was a slave and lived a life that was so grim
A G
He was a master of mechanics and repair
A G
No one knew that he would be the heir

V2

Fatherless in childhood, he found a brother soon
Obi-Wan would take him on, and that was such a boon
He learned to use the Force, although impatient and headstrong
Obi-Wan would never steer him wrong

CHORUS

Em A
Anakin the bold, they say
G E
Anakin the brave, at work and play (the one who lost the way)
G A
Anakin within his lonely shell
G E
Anakin, the one who fell

V3

Soon he was a Jedi, with his own padawan
And his wife did quicken with a daughter and a son
Then his fear consumed him and from Light he turned away
Turning to the Dark Side on that day

CHORUS

BRIDGE

G A
Many thousands murdered, many millions slain
G A
Many worlds he conquered, many nights of pain
G A
Many grudges grew in him, many hatreds too
G E
Until he met his son and fought anew

V4

He thought he would defeat his son with just a show of might
Until his son defended him and stood within the Light
He stood up to his Master and embraced the Light within
The Chosen One, as he had always been

CHORUS 2 (x2)

Em A
Anakin the bold, they say
G E
Anakin the brave, at work and play
G A
Anakin freed from his lonely shell
G E
Anakin, redeemed from hell
